Dear Sir:

Included in this directory are 88 Title III-B grantees and contracting organizations. We wish to thank all the organizations for their kind cooperation in making this directory complete and accurate.

The format lists all the grantees and contracting organizations according to an alphabetical listing of states. Included here are the mailing addresses and phone numbers of each organization, a listing of all key personnel as of August, 1973, and the Board Chairman of the governing body.

This handbook was compiled for use by agencies working with migrant farm workers. It is our objective that in the utilization of this directory, the awareness of programmatic services and needs of migrant farm workers will be increased.

Sincerely,

ANDRE GUERRERO, M.Ed.

The Juárez-Lincoln Graduate School has received a grant from the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity, for the establishment of a special migrant project. Funding of the Juárez-Lincoln Graduate School was received through the Colorado Migrant Council and Antioch College. The Juárez-Lincoln Graduate School has selected the materials contained herein for dissemination, and this decision does not necessarily reflect the position or policies of the Colorado Migrant Council or Antioch College.

The project reported in this report was performed pursuant to a grant from the U. S. Office of Economic Opportunity. The opinions expressed herein represent solely the views and opinions of the Juárez-Lincoln Graduate School, but do not necessarily reflect the position or policy of the U. S. Office of Economic Opportunity, and no official endorsement of said office should be inferred.
